From "Yes" to "I do," our love story is history, but the memories will endure a lifetime. Empowering families, embracing health, and making a difference - that's what we stand for

WEMA & OREDO THE MISSION STATEMENT

We are a young family united by love, honesty, and respect, committed to fostering strong relationships, promoting a healthy lifestyle and making a Godly impact in our community

Our mission is to use our love of music, our passion for building solid relationships, and our expertise in media to inspire and empower couples to grow together by creating a community of couples who are committed to building strong relationships and supporting each other through life's ups and downs. We believe that strong relationships are the foundation of a happy and fulfilling life, and we are committed to helping other couples discover the joy and fulfillment that comes from a deep and meaningful connection. Through our music, our relationship coaching, and our media and streaming platforms, we aim to create a community of like-minded couples who are committed to building strong and lasting relationships that stand the test of time.

We are a family dedicated to using our love of music and our expertise in media to inspire and uplift others. As a family, we believe in the power of music to bring people together and inspire positive change. We are committed to using our passion for music, media expertise, and dedication to building solid relationships to positively impact our community and beyond. We inspire others to join us to create a better, more harmonious world for all.

We met in church during our tertiary education where they bonded over their shared love of music and their desire to make a positive impact in the world. As we graduated and started our careers, we remained committed to building a life together based on love, honesty, and respect. Oredo and Wema knew that building a solid relationship was necessary, so they made time for each other, even when life got busy. They went on long walks, cooked meals together, and spent time exploring new places. They also prioritized their health and wellness, making time for exercise, healthy eating, and creating a rest day.

As our relationship deepens, we feel great about using our passion and skills to make a difference in our community. We are on a journey to start a music program for local kids, offering free lessons and instruments to those who can't afford them.

We also volunteer at our local church, mentoring young adults and helping them build strong, healthy relationships. Through our love, commitment, and passion for making a positive impact, our family is becoming known for its Godly influence and dedication to building a better world for all. This is just the beginning, not for anything but for God's glory.
